

SOAP Journaling

A journal is an excellent way to both record and process your relationship with God and others through God's word. It's also a useful tool to use at a later time to reflect on and review your faith journey.

Whilst using a journal represents a very personal time with the Lord, it also gives you the opportunity to share with others. Through discussion, you may be able to look deeper into what God is saying to you, gain new insights and even encourage others.

Remember God wants to meet with you and speak to you. Begin your time in prayer, asking God to give you ears to hear what he is saying to you.

Scripture:

Read the passage for the day and invite God to speak to you.

[Read the Wading In section if you're just starting out, Diving In, if you want to read more, and Going Deeper, if you're up for the challenge]

Highlight any verse that stands out. When you have read the passage, go back and re-read the highlighted verses. Look for one that particularly speaks to you and write it in your journal.

Observation:

Write down what you think God is saying to you in this scripture.

What does this scripture tell you about the character of God? Write down your observations and insights. Perhaps re-write the verse in your own words.

Application:

Write down the way in which the passage applies to your life.

Perhaps it is instruction for how to live, or encouragement for your situation, or a promise to hold onto, or correction for a particular area in your life. Record your insights in the journal.

Prayers:

Write down your prayer. This can be as simple as asking God to help you use this scripture, or revealing to God the steps you will take to respond to His word to you. Remember, prayer is a two way conversation, so be sure to listen to what God has to say!
