

DECEMBER 7TH R&R LUNCHEON

Hi everyone.

2023 has almost finished and you are probably wondering, like me, where this year has gone.

So many are, for various reasons, looking forward to a break and just taking time out to reflect on how you have journeyed through the business of life and are looking to the possibilities of what 2024 has in store for you.

With that in mind, it has been decided to meet for morning tea and a chat before we order lunch at the Calamvale Hotel in their restaurant. If you recall, we met there a couple of years ago and enjoyed our time together.

They still have the lunch special of a Roast dinner for $9.90 with the purchase of a drink. Sounds great. This cannot be ordered before 12pm.

WHEN – THURSDAY 7TH DECEMBER 10.30AM MORNING TEA

WHERE – STEAK AND SEAFOOD RESTAURANT, CALAMVALE HOTEL, 678 COMPTON RD, CALAMVALE

I look forward to catching up with you there.

Please contact me if you are coming on the day.
