

JESUS' INVITATION

John 6:35

Then Jesus declared,
"I am the bread of life.

Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me
will never be thirsty."

Is something stealing your appetite for what Jesus offers?

Ask Him to reveal it and to wash it away.

Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail.
They are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.

Consider all the ways you have you choosing to place your hope today?

FREEDOM

Galatians 5:1

It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery.

Is there an area in your life (or for a loved one) where freedom is needed? Bring it to Jesus, the one anointed to set the captives free (Luke 4:18–19), and trust in who He says you are.

FAITH

Galatians 5:1

I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Ask Jesus where He is at work (John 5:19). Ask to hear His voice, see with His eyes, and follow where he leads – by faith. Let His Spirit take you deeper, where your trust is without borders.

1 Timothy 1:16

For that very reason I was shown mercy so that in me, the worst of sinners, Christ Jesus might display his immense patience as an example for those who would believe in him and receive eternal life.

Whatever you need patience for, be reminded of the immense patience of Jesus; He can strengthen you as you wait. Ask Him - and take courage.
