

Hi everyone.

Can you see yourself enjoying morning tea in this delightful setting next time we meet? Well, it is not far away and easy to get to. Does it look familiar? Probably not. It is Toohey Forest Park picnic area at Nathan.

We will meet at about 10am for morning tea and when we have spotted all the wild life and/or had a stroll, we venture down the road for lunch at the Salisbury Hotel. All within a kilometer or two of each other.

If you would like to pick up your morning coffee and choose from the delightful morning tea selection, there is a wonderful shop on the corner of Toohey and Marshall road. Again, very near the picnic area. It is Good Thing Grocer and you will be surprised at the variety and quality of fresh food, flowers, many different delicatessen items and gifts. I had the orange and almond G/F cake and can recommend it even if you are not G/F.

Parking is next to where the tables are and also toilets. Very convenient.
